PETER’S PENCE & DIOCESAN NEEDS:
The Diocesan office would like to thank everyone who contributed to the collection for the Needs of the Holy See and the Diocese of Killaloe last week-end.

REFLECTION:
Blessed are the faithful: they are like safe anchors in the world of broken moorings.
Blessed are the just: they are to society what leaven is to bread.
Blessed are the generous: they keep alive our faith in the essential goodness of people.
Blessed are the caring: they shine like beacons in a world darkened by indifference.
Blessed are the genuine: they glow like gems in a world of falseness.
And blessed are those who, having put their hand to the plough, refuse to look back: they will be found worthy of the kingdom.

MOY N.S.: Ms. Geraldine McCarthy has retired after 32 years service in Scoil Iosef Naofa, Mágh. Geraldine over the years has given outstanding service to the School and to the Parish. We hugely value her preparation of the Children for First Holy Communion over all the years. On a deeper level she has sown so many seeds that have blossomed and grown in the lives of so many Children over all that time. She also leaves a great legacy of kindness and patience over all the years. We wish Geraldine the very best as she retires and many years of good health and happiness.

RINEEN N.S.: Copies of their commemorative book celebrating 150 years are available in the Parish office at a cost of €20.

OIDHREACHT AN CHLÁIR: As part of our second Éigse Thomáis Uí Aodha, to be held on October 11-12, we are running a special project with the children of Miltown, Rineen, Máigh and Clohanbeg schools with the support of the schools and a Clare Co. Council grant under the Creative Ireland programme. The project, How Irish is our English?, aims to identify Irish words and phrases which, despite the rapid social change in all areas of life over the last 20 years, are still in use in the English of this area. The schoolchildren will interact with their parents, grandparents and neighbours to collect any such words or phrases still in use either by themselves or by others in the locality. The full list will be published at the Éigse. We would be very grateful for any help which people can give to the children in the project between now and September.
