REFLECTION:

Blessed are the faithful:
they are like safe anchors in a world of broken moorings.

Blessed are the just:
they are to society what leaven is to bread.

Blessed are the generous:
they keep alive our faith in the essential goodness of people.

Blessed are the caring:
they shine like beacons in a world darkened by indifference.

Blessed are the genuine:
they glow like gems in a world of falseness.

And blessed are those who, having put their hand to the plough, refuse to look back:
they will be found worthy of the kingdom.

A PRAYER FOR UKRAINE:

God of peace and justice,
We pray for the people of Ukraine today.
We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons.
We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow, that your Spirit of comfort would draw near to them. We pray for those with power over war or peace, for wisdom, discernment and compassion to guide their decisions.
Above all, we pray for all your precious children, at risk and in fear, that you would hold and protect them.
We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace.
Amen

John O'Donohue, To Bless the Space Between Us: A Book of Blessings

Like the joy of the sea coming home to shore,
May the relief of laughter rinse through your soul.

As the wind loves to call things to dance,
May your gravity be lightened by grace.

Like the dignity of moonlight restoring the earth,
May your thoughts incline with reverence and respect.

As water takes whatever shape it is in,
So free may you be about who you become.

As silence smiles on the other side of what's said,
May your sense of irony bring perspective.

As time remains free of all that it frames,
May your mind stay clear of all its names.

May your prayer of listening deepen enough to hear in the depths the laughter of God.
