REFLECTION

Lord, I place myself in your presence
After the strain and turmoil of the day
I rest quietly here, like a little boat, that has been tossed by the waves
and buffeted by the wind, rests secure in a sheltered harbour.
Here my projects lose their power over me.
A healing process begins.
My fragmented self is reassembled,
and I am made whole again.

ODHREACHT AN CHLÁIR: As part of our second Irish-language festival, Éigse Thomáis Ó’Aodha, to be held on October 11-12, we are running a special project with the children of Miltown, Rineen, Máigh and Clohanbeg schools with the support of a Clare Co. Council grant under the Creative Ireland programme. The project, How Irish is our English?, aims to identify Irish words and phrases which, despite the rapid social change in all areas of life over the last 20 years, are still in use in the English of this area. The schoolchildren will interact with their parents, grandparents and neighbours to collect any such words or phrases still in use either by themselves or by others in the locality. The full list will be published at the Éigse. We would be very grateful for any help which people can give to the children in the project between now and September.
