REFLECTION

I will continue to believe even if everyone loses hope.

I will continue to love, even if others distil hatred.

I will continue to build, even if others destroy.

I will continue to speak of peace,
even in the midst of war.

I will continue to illuminate,
even in the midst of darkness.

I will continue to sow,
even if others trample the harvest.

And I will continue to shout,
even if the others are silent.

And I drew smiles on tearful faces.

And I'll bring relief, when we see the pain.

And I will offer reasons for joy

where there is only sadness.

I will invite to walk the one who has decided to stop...

And I will reach out to those who feel exhausted.

Abbe Pierre

A PRAYER FOR UKRAINE:

God of peace and justice,
We pray for the people of Ukraine today.
We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons.
We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow,
that your Spirit of comfort would draw near to them.
We pray for those with power over war or peace,
for wisdom, discernment and compassion
to guide their decisions.

Above all, we pray for all your precious children,
at risk and in fear,
that you would hold and protect them.

We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace.
Amen

Archbishop Stephen Cottrell

Thanks to all who have been joining us for discussion, reflection, meditation and movies. Here are some new events that might be of interest:

- For the Wednesdays of Lent, we will host a candlelit Evening prayer (7-730pm) and Lectio Divina (8-9pm). This is a lovely gentle way for people to make time for the spiritual in Lent – choose one or both moments to hear the upcoming Sunday reading, with some thoughtful, simple reflections to inspire. € per evening is the suggested donation where possible.
- Also starting a monthly singing circle from 7-9pm. Share old and new songs together. All welcome. Donations for tea/coffee welcome.
- And we are delighted that Freda can facilitate two evenings of baking classes, offering Gluten free recipes and some fresh spring ideas for all levels. 3 recipes per class with the chance to try 2 and bring home all 3!

CLARE CF SUPPORT FUND: Starting on the 17th of March, for three days, Denise Downes, Aine Coyne and Anne Flynn will be walking 65km in three days in aid of the Clare CF Support Fund. The 65 stands for 65 Roses/CF, when children with CF are younger, they find it hard to say Cystic Fibrosis, so they say 65 Roses. This charity is very close to our hearts and has helped many people in County Clare with CF throughout the last few years. We are doing this to raise money for this fantastic cause and help support the charity. On the 19th of March, we will be finishing our 65km walk, with the last few kilometres being walked on the track of Kilmurry Ibrickane football field. If anyone wants to join us at the field, you will be more than welcome. We will update you with times on the Facebook page on the morning. All donations to support people in county Clare with CF are greatly appreciated.
