A PRAYER FOR UKRAINE:

God of peace and justice,
We pray for the people of Ukraine today.
We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons.
We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow, that your Spirit of comfort would draw near to them. We pray for those with power over war or peace, for wisdom,
discernment and compassion to guide their decisions.
Above all, we pray for all your precious children, at risk and in fear, that you would hold and protect them.
We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace.
Amen

PRAYER BEFORE THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

Outside the church the noisy traffic flows past
But I have left that world behind
And I am here before you, Lord.
I close my mind and open my heart.
Here I experience my true worth,
Which consists, not in my possessions or
achievements,
But in knowing that I am loved by you.

REFLECTION: Knowing and Celebrating God

TAKE, BLESS, BREAK AND GIVE

In the Eucharist, bread is taken, blessed, broken and given. In life we are taken, blessed, broken and given.
The Priest takes the bread in his hands and blesses
it during the eucharistic prayer; then he breaks it and it is given to us as the Body of Christ.
Through our birth and baptism we are taken into God's hands; as the bread is taken, so too are we.
In life we are blessed by family, friends, love and joy; as the bread is blessed so too are we.
We are broken by failure, sin, pain and heartbreak;
as the bread is broken, so too are we.
In death we are given back to the mystery from which we came;
as the bread is given, so too are we.
When we take, bless, break and give bread to one another, we believe the Lord to be especially present in our midst. But we must learn to accept that, in his memory, we will be taken, blessed,
broken and given for the life of the world.

Michael Drumm and Tom Gunning

ON TUESDAY 5th JULY the 10 a.m. morning Mass will take place in the FCJ Spirituality House (Just beyond the Armada Hotel). We will have a cup of tea after Mass and all are welcome to celebrate Willie Clancy week.

FATHERS DAY:

A very happy Fathers Day on this weekend to all our fathers. I love Brendan Kennelly's poem "I see you dancing Father"

No sooner downstairs after the night's rest
And in the door
Than you started to dance a step
In the middle of the kitchen floor.

And as you danced
You whistled.
You made your own music
Always in tune with yourself.

Well, nearly always, anyway.
You're buried now
In Lislaughtin Abbey
And whenever I think of you
I go back beyond the old man
Mind and body broken
To find the unbroken man.
It is the moment before the dance begins,
Your lips are enjoying themselves
Whistling an air.
Whatever happens or cannot happen
In the time I have to spare
I see you dancing, father.

We remember all Fathers on this weekend and we especially remember all our Fathers who have gone before us, may they rest in peace.

WILLIE CLANCY WEEK: On Sunday 10th July Peadar O Riada and Cór Cúil Aodha will sing at the 12.15 Mass. It promises to be a great celebration and all are welcome.
