in St. Joseph's Church from 10.30 a.m. – 3 p.m.

PRAYER TO ST. ROCH

St. Roch by the ministry of an Angel, God gave you a promise engraved on a Tablet, that whoever would invoke your name, would be preserved from all contagious diseases and illnesses. St. Roch pray for us that we may be preserved from all contagious diseases and illnesses – especially the Corona Virus. Amen

PRIESTS' EASTER COLLECTION:

The Priests of the Parish would like to thank everyone who contributed to the Priests Easter collection last week-end.

NEW MINISTRIES

At Baptism each of us were called and sent to each other in community.

We are called every day to Minister to each other
("As the Father sent me so I am sending you")

At present in the Diocese 13 people are training for the Ministry of Pastoral Care. Their focus will be on reaching out to those who are vulnerable in our Parishes i.e. the sick, the bereaved and those on the margins.

Rita O'Dwyer is training for the Ministry of Pastoral care from our Cluster. Rita has done the Frist Friday call many times before the lockdown and is engaged in a number of Pastoral initiatives in our cluster.

There are also 12 other people training for the Ministry of Catechist in the Diocese. It is very likely that preparation for the Sacraments will be taken out of the schools and so catechists will prepare the children for Baptism, First Communion and Confirmation in the future.

The future of the faith in Ireland will depend on people within our communities handing on the wonderful gift of Faith.

I salute hugely those who have given their time to prepare for these two valuable Ministries and I ask you to support them and welcome them too, the future of faith in our parishes depends on their generosity.

Soon they will come to the end of their course and will be sent into our communities. The very future of Faith will depend on their good work.

MILTOWN MALBAY PASTORAL COUNCIL meeting will be on Thursday 15th April at 8pm on Zoom.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Catholic Grandparents Association

THE GOOD OLD DAYS by Mary A. Moloney

The Good Old Days is available from the author for €10.00 plus €5.00 P&P at Clyduff, Lisnagry, Castleconnell, Co. Limerick. The 120-page booklet contains the authorised biography of the famous Co. Clare priest, Fr. James Minogue (1925-1918), whose memories of his life and times are in themselves an actual archive of the twentieth century. Allied to this is an interview with Sr. Phyllis Donnellan LCM (Clare native), who recounted her life and times as a "Blue Nun" both in St. John's Hospital Limerick and Milford Care Centre. The book contains universal memories, including "Our Schoolyard Games", "The 1966 Farmers' March", "Saving the Hay", "Poems we Learned at School", and "Old Irish Sayings".

GROW IT FORWARD – Vegetable Growing Workshop

Grow it forward is a national campaign, in partnership with Grow it Yourself and Libraries Ireland, as part of the Keep Well program. Limited numbers of vegetable seed packs are available on request from your local library or the email listed below. As part of Clare libraries Grow it Forward campaign, we are inviting you to join Frank Bouchier for an online vegetable growing workshop, on Wednesday the 21st April at 11am. Frank will discuss all aspects of growing your own vegetables, when to sow, soil and site, growing in polytunnels and much more. He will be delighted to answer any queries you may have about starting your vegetable patch, or on how to continue with your sowing.

This is a free event, please note numbers are limited and booking essential. Please book your place by calling 065 9056034 or email kilkee@clarelibrary.ie
